On April 29, 2009, the San Diego Transcript announced Ryan D. Harris of the Law Offices of Ryan Harris as a Semi-Finalist for the 2009 San Diego County Top Attorneys Award in the category of Personal Injury/Property Damage. For the Award, attorneys are nominated by their San Diego County peers for their achievements in various fields of law. Mr. Harris is one of only a handful of San Diego County personal injury attorneys who received enough nominations from his peers to qualify as a Semi-Finalist.

"I am honored to be recognized by my peers in San Diego County for my work in the field of Personal Injury Law," says Harris. "Being a Semi-Finalist for the 2009 San Diego County Top Attorneys award is a tremendous achievement for me and I am humbled to be listed amongst such outstanding colleagues."

Ryan D. Harris is the managing attorney and principal of the Law Offices of Ryan Harris. Mr. Harris has extensive experience in Personal Injury law and litigation. He has successfully tried to jury verdict, arbitrated, and mediated many personal injury cases for his clients. Mr. Harris's passion is representing injured individuals and their families against major insurance companies. He finds satisfaction in helping these less fortunate individuals.

Mr. Harris founded the Law Offices of Ryan on the principal that injured persons and their families should have access to the same quality legal representation as large insurance companies. The Law Offices of Ryan Harris is a premiere personal injury law firm. The law firm only handles personal injury cases, and only represents injured persons and their families. The law firm does not represent insurance companies.

Ryan is licensed to practice in all California State Courts. Ryan is a member of the American Bar Association, American Association for Justice, State Bar of California, Consumer Attorneys of California, San Diego Bar Association, Consumer Attorneys of San Diego, North County Bar Association, Orange County Bar Association, and The Verdict Club.
